SECTION 07 – RELEASING SPIRITUAL FORCES

CHAPTER 18

How to Build Up Spiritual Power

Section 07 – Releasing Spiritual Forces

Chapter 18 – How to Build Up Spiritual Power

Romans 10:9 and 10 says:

That if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved. For with the heart man believes to righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made to salvation.

Many years ago they brought out a new science fiction movie on TV. It was somewhat different to anything that had been brought out before. It was a movie called Star Trek, and it caught the attention of many people including myself.

I can remember seeing this movie as a child. Or I may have already been a young teenager by that stage. But whatever age I was, I remember that I was fascinated with it.

One of the things that fascinated me the most was the weapons that they used. It was the first time I had ever seen somebody using a laser gun in a movie.

We had heard about the laser; about this powerful light that goes forth and can destroy things. But nobody had ever before put forth the idea that you could actually make a gun that could fire a laser beam.

It was really something to see them take this gun, charge it up and just pull the trigger. And 'pow' that laser beam would hit the target and have devastating results.

I was fascinated with it. I never really did know how it worked, but it just seemed so feasible that such a thing could be possible.

God's Power Like Laser Beams

As I grew up and moved into spiritual things I often came to see the power of God as a laser beam. As I looked out one night when there was thunder and lightning, I saw the lightning come shining out of the sky in a blast of power.

I thought, "That is just like a laser beam. It is raw energy and power, and when it hits it is devastating. There is such power there."

I began to build a picture up in my mind that the power of God is like a laser beam. It is raw energy like a lightning bolt. If somehow we could just harness that power, and call upon it when we needed it, what results we could obtain. The power would be devastating.

As God taught me the principles that I have been sharing in this book, I began to realize more and more that there is a laser beam of God's power.

God has placed within us the ability to tap into and use that power, and to send it forth into the earth against a problem.

We have been looking at the forces and the power that is in the recreated spirit, due to the presence of God's Holy Spirit. We have seen the force that can be released to go forth from the spirit of man.

We have been looking at ways that this power can be released. In that last chapter we looked at how we can build a template or a picture for that power to go forth and produce a creation in the earth.

In this section now I want to look at how we can charge that power up, just like a laser, and release it against the problems in our lives and the lives of others. We can release it into situations to bring about a change and a positive effect.

How Lasers Work

I used to love science when I was younger, but I never really got to study much about lasers. It was a very new technology.

You probably know that laser stands for 'Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation'. In effect, it means making a light beam become stronger and stronger; amplifying the light. That is what it amounts to.

I dug in the encyclopedias to look for something there about how to make a laser. I wanted to see whether I could extract some kind of spiritual truth out of it, and I found out that actually the principle is very simple.

A laser is created using a crystal, a light beam and a couple of mirrors. It sounds quite simple doesn't it? Perhaps you will go out and make a laser after this.

Well it is not that simple, but the principles are. What happens is you take a particular material such as ruby. This is the most common one that is used.

If you send a light beam through a ruby crystal, as that light energy passes through the crystal, it causes an excitation of the atoms of the ruby and those atoms begin to vibrate. When this takes place they release further energy, and that energy is released in the form of light.

As the light beam goes through the crystal, it causes another light beam to be created. You now have two light beams. You place a mirror at the end of the ruby crystal and bounce the two light beams off the mirror so that they go back again through the crystal.

You now have two light beams going through the crystal. And as they go through the crystal, guess what they produce? Another two light beams.

When they get to the other end of the crystal we put another mirror there, so that we now bounce four light beams back through. Are you beginning to see the picture?

Take out your calculator and find out how big the number gets after the light has passed through the crystal several million times, bearing in mind the speed of light.

Each time that light beam goes through the crystals it causes further excitation in the crystal, and it causes further light beams to be put forth.

What you have now is an amplification of the original light beam. It is getting bigger and bigger. Each light ray is totally in phase with the others so that they are at the peak of their power.

When the wave goes up they are all going up together. And when it goes down they are all going down together. They are perfectly in sync and perfectly in phase.

What you have is a phenomenal amount of energy contained in millions of light beams. The longer you allow this to take place the more that energy builds up, until you have a highly amplified and highly concentrated ray of light.

Then all you do is make a hole in one of the mirrors at the end, so that instead of reflecting back, the light beam shoots straight out into the earth. You have a laser beam. It is that simple.

There are a few important things that you need to bear in mind however.

Firstly you will need to have a ruby crystal to start with, and you will also need a light beam. Then you must let the light beams go backwards and forwards for a while in the ruby crystal before you release the final light beam.

If you release it too soon you will have a bright light, but it will not be anywhere near the power of the laser. It would not have grown to the intensity that could burn a hole through metal. There is a time period during which the laser is charging up.

As I began to look at how I could use this for a spiritual illustration, the Lord showed me to look at a few other natural phenomena that work in a very similar way. So I will mention all of them first, before I show you how we can apply them to spiritual things.

Hurricanes

Living where we are in Mexico, we do not see terribly many hurricanes, but we have had a pretty close shave with some. I feel sorry for those poor people who live in the Caribbean and some of the hurricane belts, where these hurricanes and tornadoes pass over the land and create devastation.

You often hear about it in the news. There are phenomena like El Niño which comes in cycles, bringing with it intense winds and power. And all the time you hear about high and low pressure, cyclones and weather terms that most people do not understand.

How is a hurricane formed? Again I do not know the scientific things. But I did learn that somewhere along the line there comes a mixing of two different types of wind.

Sometimes a cold and a warm wind begin to mix together and blend together. When they do they form a small whirlwind.

As they continue to mix together they begin to gather in speed, and they start to churn up and grow in power. And now your whirlwind becomes a hurricane.

You have this swirling power of air. It is just air, but just like light is harmless by itself until it becomes amplified, so air is harmless until it becomes amplified and gains in momentum.

When this happens you have a powerful force, which when it moves, causes destruction wherever it goes.

The Atomic Bomb

I also looked at another marvelous power that man has harnessed in recent decades and in our lifetime. That is the power of the atom bomb.

Phenomenal power is released instantly when an atomic bomb is triggered. All that man had to do to make it happen, was to learn how to split the tiniest particle of matter that you can get - the atom.

So how do you make an atomic bomb? Well there is a lot involved, but let me give you in basic terms a way of starting an atomic reaction.

You take a material that can be used for that particular operation, and you bombard it with very high-speed particles.

You send these high-speed particles at that matter. And as the particles hit that matter and bombard it, the atoms in that matter begin to split. When an atom splits you have pieces of atom flying everywhere.

When those pieces of atom fly everywhere, they begin to hit the atoms next to them. Then those little pieces of atom cause the atoms next to them to split in the same way.

And so begins what is known as a chain reaction, and nuclear fission begins to take place. A tremendous amount of energy is suddenly released, and that energy can be used to create the atomic bomb.

It can also be used to generate electricity and to do a lot of good things. It is a phenomenal amount of energy from a small amount of matter; a sudden powerful release of power and energy.

All these illustrations look very similar don't they?

Underground Streams

There is one more source of power that is available to us. This one is slightly different because it is a natural resource. I am referring to an underground stream, or water flowing underground in the rocks at high pressure and high speeds.

All you need to do to tap that power is to drill down into it until you hit that underground stream. Then the water comes gushing out.

You can do it with oil too. You have to drill down until it comes gushing out.

Putting Them Together

All of these are illustrations that picture the power of God. Let's look at them very quickly.

Making a Spiritual Laser

Did you know that you have a ruby crystal inside of you? It is in your spirit, and all you need to do to excite that crystal is to give it a ray of light from the Spirit of God.

As the light goes through your spirit, it begins to get excited and it lets out a little power. Then as you let that power go back and forth, a charge begins to build up. If you leave it to build up for long enough, it can be sent forth with devastating effects.

Jesus said:

Whoever will say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and will not doubt in his heart, but will believe that those things that he says will come to pass; he will have whatever he says.

That is a powerful laser beam. It will wipe that mountain out. The energy that is in our spirits is very powerful amongst those recreated forces of faith, and hope and love.

Making Spiritual Hurricanes

How about the hurricane? You take the wind of the Spirit that is within, and you seed it with the Word. The Word was also inspired by the Holy Spirit and it is filled with God's nature.

As you mix those two together, a wind starts to stir. A whirlwind starts to move and a hurricane starts to build up.

The power begins to rise up within your heart and spirit. It is a mighty power of the Spirit of God just waiting to be unleashed upon the earth, to go forth and destroy the works of darkness.

It can be made to come against your problem, to remove it and cause that mountain to be blown away.

Making Spiritual Atom Bombs

You can take and use the little particles that are available in the Word. You do not need everything from Genesis to Revelation. All you need is a few particles.

You get them going at high speed and bombard them into the piece of uranium you have inside of you, and you will start a chain reaction. A nuclear reactor will start to churn inside of you. There will be a release of power like you have never known before.

Using Your Underground Stream

Jesus said that the Spirit of God would be like a spring of water within us. He said:

Out of your belly shall flow rivers of living water.

You have an underground stream inside of your spirit. All you need to do is drill down and sink down a pipe, tap that power and get it gushing out.

How do you drill down into your spirit, and how do you get it out? Paul gives us a bit of a hint in 1 Corinthians 14:4 when he says:

He that speaks in an [unknown] tongue builds up himself.

How does speaking in tongues build you up?

We have seen that speech comes from the spirit. We have seen that when by an act of your will you speak forth words, you are actually tapping some of the resources that are in your spirits.

Do you realize something? When you pray in tongues, as you allow the Holy Spirit, through your spirit, to flow out through you in words that are inspired by Him, you are actually tapping into the very power of Almighty God.

A flow starts to take place, but you have to drill down a bit first and you have to sink a pipe in. You have to pray in tongues and get into the Word. You have to meditate on the Word and think on it, just like you do with your laser beam.

You take that Word and you pass it through the ruby crystal once, twice, and again. You take the promises of the Word of God and you fit them to your lips, and you speak them again and again.

Each time you speak that Word it goes into your spirit. Your spirit says, "Yes," and it puts forth a bit of power.

You take it and you push it back through your spirit again. You say,

My God provides my needs.

Glory! The power begins to charge up. Speak it forth, send it out, think about it and visualize it. Put that template in place that we spoke about in the last section. Apply it to your mind, emotions and your will.

See the answer in your mind. Desire it and feel the assurance. Put your fullness into it - your emotions, your feelings and your desires. Throw everything into it, until you can taste it, smell it and touch it; until it becomes real to you.

The charge begins to build up and the laser beam gains in power. The hurricane begins to swirl and the nuclear reaction starts to take place.

You drill down into your spirit and break through that solid rock. And you tap into the power that will gush forth from your spirit.

CHAPTER 19

How to Release the Power

Chapter 19 – How to Release the Power

Only once the laser is fully charged are you ready to release it. If you let the laser out before it is charged, it will just go (plop) with a little light beam on the wall.

But if you let it charge up high enough and let it out against anything it is going to destroy. It is going to be devastating.

A little whirlwind has no more power than to pick up a few pieces of paper and dirt that are lying on the ground. But let it build up and become a hurricane, and it destroys everything in its path.

You must cause it to build up. It must charge up. Then when it charges up you have to release it into the earth.

I have heard people say,

"But I believed. I knew that I knew that I had faith. Yes there was love in my heart. I was flowing in the love of God and I had the pictures so clearly in my mind. My hope was so strong. All of them were there.

I had built my spiritual templates. I knew that God was going to move in my situation. I waited and waited but it didn't happen."

If you try to present some of these principles to people like that they will say,

"I tried it but it doesn't work. I know somebody who really believed all this stuff. They really applied it, but they are in their grave today."

Or they will say to you,

"I know somebody who knew that God was going to provide his needs, but he had to go bankrupt. It doesn't work."

Do you know what they were doing? They were walking around with their fully loaded rifle, but they did not use it.

You see you have to release the power. It is no good holding in your hands the most powerful laser gun that there is unless you use it. Until you take it and release the laser energy against the target, nothing is going to happen.

You say, "Well I was waiting for the Lord to do that."

No, God is not going to do it. You have to do that. We have covered this already. Whatever God is going to do in the earth He does through human agency.

It is you who must release His power and authority in the earth. You are the one who must release the forces of the recreated Spirit of God in you that are flowing through you.

Releasing Through Words and Action

How are you going to release it? There are only two ways that you can release and pour out what is in your spirit. Do you remember what they are? We covered them before.

There are only two ways that you can pour out from your body what is in your spirit. They are words and action.

If you are standing there without doing anything and waiting for God, it is not going to happen. If you are standing there with your mouth shut, waiting for God, it is also not going to happen.

That power must be released into the earth. You have to release it by the things that you do and by the things that you say.

There is however a mistake that some folks make in this. I have seen people take off their glasses and say,

"By faith I can see," and they break their glasses.

They say, "I'm going to put my faith in action."

Then they have to grope around having somebody to lead them. They have to go and see the optometrist the next day to have their eyes tested again and get a new set, and it costs them money.

Do not be foolish. I am not talking about that kind of thing. I am saying that when the power is there and it is charged up, it is time to release it.

I will show you some Scriptural examples of that to show you exactly how it works.

Releasing Through Music

There is another way that we can charge up the power and cause it to be released. It is a big subject which can be covered on its own, but I am just going to mention it here. It is the power of praise and worship, and the use of music and singing.

This is such a powerful force that Satan has tapped into, and he is using it. The music industry today is one of the largest and biggest money-making endeavors.

Why is this? It is because music has power to tap into the soul. Music has power to cause your soul to release what is in your spirit.

How does it do this? Music stirs your mind, your emotions and your will - all three. Think about it. Are you able to sing without your emotions being stirred?

Haven't you found that as you sing something begins to bubble inside? Have you ever been able to sing when you are feeling sad and miserable?

Have you not found that something begins to take place as you sing? There comes a stirring in your emotions and your feelings.

Have you not found at times when you are feeling a bit morbid and depressed, that just putting on some bright music has the ability to lift your emotions and lift you out of the doldrums? There is terrific power there.

It Causes Resonance

As I looked to the Lord and asked Him about this, He showed me that music has the ability to cause a vibration. It produces a resonance in the soul of man.

Do you know what resonance is? I learned a bit about that in science. It looks like I am giving you science lessons here.

If you blow on a bottle at the right angle and with the right pressure, the bottle begins to whistle and make a sound. What actually happens is that the air inside the bottle begins to vibrate.

Resonance is something that depends on the volume of the container and the kind of sound you put at the top.

Singers use resonance all the time by changing the shape of their throat. They cause the notes that they are creating in their vocal cords to vibrate and to produce a beautiful harmonious sound.

Resonance and music are closely linked together. Music causes your spirit, soul and body to all vibrate together.

There is something about rhythm and beats, that when you hear them something inside you starts to go 'Doof. Doof. Doof.' Your foot starts to tap, your hands clap, and your body begins to move with the rhythm of the music.

I do not fully understand why this happens, but there is something powerful about music that causes a flow to take place.

Here is one of the most powerful ways that you can cause the power that is in your spirit to begin to flow out. It is to get your spirit, soul and body all vibrating together in harmony.

When that happens, the power that is in your spirit begins to flow out through your soul and through your body, and God's power is released.

This is another one of the ways of putting a template in place, charging up the power, and pouring forth into the earth.

CHAPTER 20

Scriptural Examples

Chapter 20 - Scriptural Examples

I want to end off now by giving you a few Scriptural examples and illustrations of how these principles have been applied in the past in the Word.

This is not just theory or a science lesson I have given you. These things have been applied by people in the Bible and by the Lord Jesus Himself.

Joshua and Jericho

When God called Joshua to go out and conquer the land of Canaan, He said this to Joshua in Joshua 1:3:

Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that I have given to you, as I said to Moses.

He also said to Joshua in verse 8:

This book of the law shall not cease [to come] out of your mouth; but you shall meditate in it day and night.

Joshua meditated on the Word, filled himself with it and spoke it continually. The Word was on his lips all the time.

You could probably have awoken Joshua in the middle of the night and asked him to speak, and he would have given you a Scripture. He was so full of it.

Sometimes he had to probably come down to earth a little to speak normally. His mouth was filled with the Word of God. He was thinking about the Scriptures and about the Word of God all the time.

The Bible tells us concerning Joshua, that while he was still under training and a servant of Moses, he would go with Moses to the tent of meeting to come into the presence of God.

God would come down and Moses would talk with the Lord. Then Moses would leave the tent, and Joshua would stay there a few hours more just to be in the presence of God.

Once he had taken over from Moses, God said to Joshua,

Every place you put your foot I have given it to you.

Notice the past tense there. He said,

"I have given it to you."

How did Joshua conquer Canaan? He did it by putting his foot on it. God had already given it to him in essence, but until he put his foot on it, it was not his.

The power of the Spirit is within you. But until you release it against the situation to speak forth a Word into the earth to create that thing, it is not going to take place.

Let's look at how Joshua used this power. We read in Joshua 6 that they came against the city of Jericho. It was surrounded by walls and God gave Joshua some very clear instructions.

He said, "I want you to take the priests with the rams' horns and get them to march in front, with the Ark and all the people coming behind them.

I want you to walk around the walls of Jericho blowing the rams horns and carrying the presence of God that is in the Ark. I want you to do it once every day for six days, and on the seventh day I want you to go around seven times.

As you come to the end of the seven times, I want you to get the priests to blow one long blast on the ram's horn and then somebody must blow the trumpet. When this happens, then get everyone to shout and the walls will come down."

It sounds like they were putting a laser together there don't you think? They were putting together a situation of taking the power of God, blowing the rams horns and speaking forth.

Once a day they went around the walls. They went around their problem. As they looked at the walls they were praising God and speaking. They were declaring it forth and the laser was building up.

Each day as they went it built a bit more. Then on the seventh day as they went - one, two, three, four, five, six, seven times - Joshua gave the order,

"Blow the ram's horn. Sound the trumpet. Shout!"

That is when they pulled the trigger. That is when God's power went forth and the walls of Jericho could not stand. They came tumbling down instantly.

Jesus and Lazarus

I would like to show you another example from the life of Jesus.

Jesus Himself used these same principles of releasing power. But Jesus charged up His laser daily. He spent time in the presence of the Father daily communing with Him.

Jesus also spent time in the Word. He had to have known the Word well to be able to quote it like He did. He was full of the Word and full of the Spirit.

Jesus received a message that His good friend Lazarus was sick and dying. We all know the story. His sisters sent a message saying,

"Lord, the man that you love is sick. Please come and heal him."

Jesus loved Lazarus with a very special, tender love. He loves us all, but Lazarus was a special friend. Jesus had all the faith, He had all the love and He had all the hope. He could do anything, but I want you to see how He used that power.

Jesus prayed to the Father and the Father said,

"Stay another couple of days."

Jesus did not go running off and say,

"Let me go and fire my laser and say, Be healed!"

It was not time yet because there were a few more things here that needed to come into play.

It is so important that you do not go off half-cocked in releasing the power of God. You should not be firing your laser left, right and center wherever you like.

You need to be led by the Spirit of God. And the actions that you take must be regulated by the Spirit of God.

Many people miss it at this point. They think they can just claim whatever they want and it has to come. No, you have to be led by the Spirit of God. God has a correct time even though you are walking with Him.

Even though your laser is fully charged, very often there is a time and a place when God instructs you and says,

“Do it now!”

This is just what happened with Joshua. God said,

“Now is the time to do it.”

Jesus said to His disciples,

“We will go there now to where Lazarus is, because he is asleep and we will go and wake him up.”

Jesus spoke forth His faith. He knew Lazarus was dead. He knew it but He would not say it. He would only let His lips be fitted with the Word of God and the truth, and the clear picture that He saw in His mind.

As far as He was concerned,

“Lazarus is just asleep. We will go and wake him up and just carry on.”

The disciples looked at Him and said,

“Lord, if he’s sleeping why don’t you just leave him? I mean let the guy sleep a bit.”

Jesus had to say to them,

"Listen, he's dead."

Jesus stood there as He came to the tomb where Lazarus's dead body was lying. He had the faith. He had prayed, he had the direction and he was ready to shoot.

Can you imagine Jesus standing waiting now for the Father to do something? He could have stood there for a long time and nothing would have happened.

You say, "But Jesus had to pray."

No, Jesus had already prayed, because when He stood by the tomb He said,

"Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I know that you always hear me."

Jesus had already prayed about this. But praying was not enough, not even for the Son of God.

You say, "But I've really been praying and I've been looking to the Lord. I've been trusting Him to provide and to meet my needs."

It is not enough. There has to come a release of God's power and authority into the earth.

Jesus Released it in Action

Jesus began to release that power through action. He said to them,

"Roll away the stone from the tomb."

They looked at Him as though He was mad and said,

"Don't you know this guy's been dead for four days already? He's rotten. There is going to be a bad smell coming out there, Lord."

"Roll away the stone."

Jesus had put Himself at a point of no return, because if Lazarus had not come back from the dead, He would have discredited His entire ministry. He would have been shown to be a fraud. He would have missed it. Jesus had to put His faith on the line.

God said, "Action. Put your foot on the land, Joshua, and it will become yours."

"But I don't see any land."

"Put your foot down and the land will appear."

Somebody said once,

"Faith is stepping out onto nothing but the Word of God."

Jesus put His faith into action. Then He lifted His heart in praise to the Father. I think He had a praise session there and said,

"Thank you Father that you heard me. Hallelujah."

He united His heart with the Father and He spoke. Who did He speak to?

"Well Father, I believe that you're going to raise Lazarus from the dead. And so Father I ask you now to raise Lazarus up."

No, He didn't do that. Yes He prayed, then He faced the dead body that was lying in the tomb. He spoke to that body and said,

"Lazarus. Yes, you dead body, it's you I'm talking to. Come forth!"

He released His laser beam right into that dead body, and the dead body came to life. Well what did you expect? He sent forth a creative Word of power to raise Lazarus from the dead.

It was very powerful because it not only raised Him from the dead, but it actually picked up his body and stood it up by the door. He was all wrapped up in those strips that they used to wrap them up in those days with all the herbs and spices.

The power of releasing the authority of the Word of God, by the power of the Spirit of God in the earth, brought an instant result. It raised Lazarus from the dead, but there was one more thing that had to be done after that.

If Lazarus had been left there the way he came forth he would have died again. Have you ever tried breathing with all those things around your face? The guy was all tied up.

Jesus said, "Loose him and set him free. Take all that stuff off him and release him to come forth now."

Be Poised and Ready

Perhaps you have a heart full of faith. You have built a good template. You have meditated on the Word of God, and you have a clear picture in your heart and mind of what God's will is and what is going to be accomplished.

You have a heart that is filled with love and your motives are pure. You have a heart that is full of hope. The picture is clear in your mind and you are ready to go. All you need to do now is just to say,

"Okay Lord I want to pull the trigger now."

Just get your laser charged and get ready until God says,

"Now!"

Perhaps you have drilled down into your underground stream. You have sunk your pipe down for the water to come out and the water is gushing forth.

Now all you need to do is to put a device at the top to pump the water out. You put a windmill there. You have seen them dotted around the countryside in some places.

As soon as the vanes of the windmill turn, the pump begins to operate. The water is pulled out from the underground stream up through the pipe and it gushes out.

But you have to wait for the wind. When the wind comes and blows on that windmill it begins to turn. All you need to do is to set up your windmill and your pump.

All you need to do is to set up your laser, and get it charged and ready to go. Then let the Lord take charge. Wait on Him and say,

"Okay Lord, tell me when. Oh Lord, I can't wait."

Just stand ready and waiting. Keep it charged and keep it poised. Do not lose it at that point. Do not give up in despair and say,

"It is never going to happen."

Just hang in there. Keep it going and keep it charged until your Joshua says,

"Okay, shout."

Then the power of God is going to come forth. The Spirit of God is going to move out to create the thing that you have believed for; to destroy that mountain that stands before you and to remove all the obstacles that are in your way.

God will reach out by His power, and He will provide every single thing that you have believed Him for.

About The Author

Les D. Crause is the Founder and Apostolic Father of Global Business Ministries International (www.gbmi.co.za)

Always working on the cutting edge, Les is paving the way for the End Times Church and also rising up to set a standard in both Ministry and Business. His influence is reaching to all nations, all genders, and all classes of people.

Having spent years in preparation, Les has put together a ministry that combines the three roads that God has shown him.

These roads are: The Ministry Road, The Business Road and the Social Road.

This will result in the ultimate vision that God gave Les years ago. He showed that those in the End Times Church would walk on three roads at the same time, and that this would produce the greatest church of all time.

Les has produced many books and resources on different subjects and continues to provide teaching and training to help extend the Kingdom of God into the earth.
